

CULVER CITY | HOLLYWOOD | VAN NUYS

UPDATED VISITOR GUIDELINES

The health and safety of our staff and patients is a top priority at Southern California Hospitals at Culver City, Hollywood and Van Nuys. We understand how important the support of loved ones and friends is to patients during their hospital stay. At the same time, the new coronavirus (COVID-19) requires us to temporarily adjust our visiting policy in order to keep our patients and visitors safe from illness. We continue to implement vigorous policies and procedures to address the COVID-19 and are following all governmental regulations as well. If you have any questions about the updated visitor policy, please contact the hospital at one of the numbers below. Thank you for your understanding and for adhering to these policies to keep our patients, families, staff, and visitors protected and healthy during this time.

GUIDELINES FOR VISITORS:

- Effective Tuesday, March 17, 2020, visitors are prohibited at Southern California Hospital at Culver City, Hollywood and Van Nuys.
- Based on the clinical team's judgment, one visitor may be allowed in end-of-life situations at our acute care hospitals in Culver City and Hollywood.
